FIRST DAY'S SALE.

Monday, August 19th, 1912,

Commencing at Twelve o'clock.

GEORGE CUBITT,

Auctioneer and Valuer,
Hercules and Samson House,

NORWICH.

Conditions of Sale.

FIRST.

The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and no person shall retract a bidding, but give up his name and residence if required, and should any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute shall be offered again or not at the discretion of the Auctioneer, who is to be the sole arbitrator of any matter in dispute during the sale, and who also reserves the right of refusing any bidding and of withdrawing any lots from the Sale.

SECOND.

No advance less than 6d. ; above 10s., 1s. ; above £1, 2s. ; above £5, 5s. ; and so on at the discretion of the Auctioneer.

THIRD.

The full purchase-money for each lot shall be paid at the fall of the hammer (if required), or directly after the close of the sale. Each and every lot shall, immediately on the fall of the hammer, be considered as delivered, and be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the respective purchaser or purchasers thereof, and shall be removed from the place of sale at the purchaser's expense, and taken with all faults and errors of description, the Auctioneer not being answerable for the authenticity, genuineness, or completeness of any lot. In cases where weights, measurements, or quantities are given, they are such as were arrived at in making up the lots for sale, and are believed to be, and are to be taken as correct - whether more or less ; and the Auctioneer, acting as agent only, will not hold himself liable for the withdrawal of any lot or lots from the sale.

FOURTH.

No lot or lots shall be removed from the premises on which the Sale is held till paid for, nor without a delivery order or pass. The contract of sale is to be deemed in all cases as made exclusively with the Auctioneer (and not with the owner of the goods), and payment is to be made to him or his clerk only. If any person purchase more than one lot it shall be deemed one entire purchase, and no lot, or portion of a lot, can be delivered to any purchaser before the purchase-money be paid for all the lots. No lots will be transferred.

FIFTH.

If any purchaser fail to comply with the above conditions, or any of them, the Auctioneer shall be at liberty either to recover in full the amount of the lot or lots bought by such purchaser, without reference to any delivery of the lot or lots other than the first delivery by the fall of the hammer ; or to re-sell any lot or lots bought by such purchaser, either by public or private sale ; and the full amount of the purchase-money at the present sale, or the deficiency (if any) arising from such second sale, together with all expenses, costs, and charges attendant thereon, shall be made good by the defaulter at the present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

SIXTH.

CREDIT WILL NOT BE GIVEN.
